

The Socialists' Marseillaise.

BY INKKE. The great workers, his slogan utters in fearful words...

A Typical Typographical Case

There is a printer on a morning paper in New Orleans who averages $25 a week...

This man decidedly and most positively is not a Socialist...

He has been married fourteen years, has worked steadily every week since his marriage...

This gentleman and property owner (?) declares Socialists are anarchists and that the entire aggregation ought to be driven into the Gulf of Mexico.

Therefore he will not be a Socialist, because he thinks some day he will be a capitalist.

How foolish and short-sighted is this printer, and millions like him in this country!

By his own admission he last year voted for Taft, because, he said he thought Taft was the best man to complete the Panama canal.

In all these votes he placed himself in the mental catalogue with Morgan, Rockefeller, Harriman and the lesser luminaries of capitalism.

ROCKEFELLER RAILROADS. The Standard Oil company will soon be in control of practically the entire railway system in the United States.

WHAT NO 710 DID. When I went out to distribute a bundle of 710 I found people who had before been adverse to Socialism were willing to read Warren's speech.

THE ARSENAL OF FACTS.

You can bet I have fun with that 'Arsenal.' It is the best that I have ever seen.

This is the unanimous verdict. The 'Arsenal' will help you in your agitation work.

Remember this book can't be bought with money. Twelve subscriptions at twenty-five cents each; twelve sub cards at twenty-five cents each; or a bundle of twelve copies each week for a year to one address at a cost of $3.00 gets the 'Arsenal.'

SEVENTEEN BILLION GRAFT. Just how much Mr. Roosevelt really has at heart the welfare of the wage worker and tiller of the soil appears better from his deeds than from his words.

This was nominally in the interest of the beloved wage-worker and tiller of the soil. In reality it was an effort to boom stocks by giving them the 'presidential' sanction.

Roosevelt advocated, in his message to congress, the buying of trust stocks by the people. The people did buy.

Read his last statement again until you grasp its full significance. It means that the people—the wage workers and farmers and small dealers—followed Roosevelt's advice.

Another Republican Gone Wrong. H. E. Foster, of Cleveland, sends in his sub and says: 'While not a Socialist politically I like the breadth of your democracy and the warmth and universality of your brotherhood.'

THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS. From an argument in defence of Archibald F. Rowan as used of libel in the court of King Bench, Dublin, January 20, 1794.

But, gentlemen, if you wish for a nearer and more interesting example, you have it in the history of your own revolution.

As evidence of this fact it is recited in the brief filed by the government in the suit against the Standard Oil company at St. Louis that the Standard has four directors in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul; two directors in the Union Pacific; two in the Southern Pacific; two in the Santa Fe; one in the New York Central and allied lines; one in the New York, New Haven and Hartford; one in the Missouri Pacific; one in the Boston and Maine; one in the Wisconsin Central; one in the Rutland railroad and one each in a number of other lines.

But all this is necessary to complete the cycle of capitalist development and prepare the people for the Co-operative Commonwealth.

CRIMINAL SELF-RESPECT.

Roy Layton, born near Hallettsville, Tex., possessed of a vigorous mind and a strong body, but denied an opportunity to get an education...

Asked why he chose to be a thief and a social outcast rather than to be an honest workman, Layton said: 'I believe me from the life of an honest workman. Until he gets rich—and he never gets rich if he remains honest—the workman from the cradle to the grave is a slave to his master.'

Layton spoke from his heart when he uttered these sentiments. His attitude was erect and his eyes flashed as he spoke.

Capitalism produces cowards, slaves and criminals. Socialism will free mankind and produce heroes, men and women, created in the likeness of the perfect man.

TAFT AND THE TARIFF. In his campaign speeches Mr. Taft pledged himself repeatedly in the name of his party that if given power there would be a substantial reduction in the tariff.

It is my judgment that a revision of the tariff in accordance with the pledges of the republican platform will be on the whole a substantial revision downward.

A COURT OF JUSTICE (?). Talk of a just court! I myself was a juror in the spring of '98. It is rotten to the core.

OS what was supposed to be reliable information the Appeal a short time ago printed a paragraph to the effect that the notorious Harry Orchard had been released from the Idaho prison.

The Big Ten.

It isn't often we have a record like the following to report. You will observe that the Big Ten this week which includes the ten largest lists of subscribers, is made up of ten comrades, each of whom sent the Appeal last week 100 subscriptions.

Please note the number of the little yellow address label on the wrapper of your paper or on the paper itself. This label tells you how long your subscription runs.

Should repeat themselves with a round of Studies in Socialism for effective ammunition. It is all devoted to propaganda, and the number just out deals largely with the farmer in relation to Socialism.

THE PROGRESSIVE WOMAN is the greatest woman paper in America. It handles all of woman's problems from the Socialist standpoint.

THE FINNISH ORGANIZATION of the Socialist party of the United States reports a steady increase in membership during the past three years.
